25. The decisions of the committee and the Judges are final.
26. BIO SECURITY
DEFRA regulations require all birds to be inspected before being penned. A declaration form will be sent out to exhibitors, this must be completed and handed in to the secretary upon arrival at the show. All show boxes / baskets or crates must be fully cleansed and disinfected both prior to the event, and upon return home before they are used to hold any other bird. It is advisable to isolate birds returning from a gathering from other stock you may own for a minimum 7-day period and scrutinise their condition carefully during this period. All exhibitors must ensure that their birds are clean and free from lice, scaly leg etc. and in general good health. Tenbury Agricultural Society reserve the right to exclude any birds not complying with bio security, and entry fees will NOT be refunded.
Exhibition pens have been washed and disinfected before this show.
27. CANCELLATION. In the unfortunate event that the Poultry Show is cancelled due to disease, poor weather or any other reason outside the Society's control, the Society will refund entry fees minus £1.00 to cover administration costs.
28. CONDITIONS OF DATA STORAGE Information from entry forms may be stored on computer. Information about results may also be published or provided to media platforms and breed societies for publication. Information about exhibitors or their exhibits may also be provided to DEFRA or other official bodies. The making of entries to this show is irrevocable consent for the storage and disclosure of personal information in this way.

Any exhibitor making entries to this show shall be deemed to have agreed to abide by these conditions, and it is on this understanding that those entries are accepted.
